KILLER LIVED WITH CORPSE FOR TWO MONTHS

By BRAD CHADWICK

A MANIAC killed his flatmate and lived with her decomposing body for two months – all the time fearing she would come back from the dead, police say.

George Anthony Bone, 31, kept the air conditioning on full blast to try and limit the huge number of flies and maggots feasting on the decaying cadaver.

Biden's sis backs Meg for office

SHE may have gone down like a cup of cold milk in Britain but Meghan Markle is set for big things in the USA.

The Duchess of Sussex has been backed by President Joe Biden's sister Valerie for a run at the White House, with many members of the public also supporting her in a new poll.

She has reportedly endorsed Meg as a candidate, and she has also topped a poll in which Democrats were asked which women they would vote for.

The Duchess tied with Vice President Kamala Harris, and is ahead of Hillary Clinton.

There has been speculation that Meghan could run for a political position such as the Governor of California. The post was held by actors Ronald Reagan and Arnie Schwarzenegger.

HSBC coins in double profits

BANKING giant HSBC's profits have more than doubled as it benefited from rising interest rates around the world.

The London-based lender posted pre-tax profit of $21.7bn (£16.9bn) for the first six months this year, compared to $9.2bn a year earlier.

That figure was also boosted by a $1.5bn gain from its purchase of collapsed Silicon Valley Bank's British business.

The bank – which gets two-thirds of its revenue from Asia – still warns of the uncertain economic outlook.

ON A (SAUSAGE) ROLL

Boom time for Britain's fave baker

GREGGS has said it will target more shops in supermarkets and airports as expansion helped to drive sales higher.

Bosses at the Newcastle-based business also said it benefited from its "value position" over the first half of the year amid continued demand from customers with squeezed household finances.

The high street bakery chain revealed that sales jumped 21.5% to £844 million for the six months to July 1.

This included a boost from higher demand from customers, price increases and new store openings.

Greggs said it increased its store estate by 50 to 2,378 shops across the UK, after opening 94 sites but shutting 44 over the half year. The company has outlined ambitions to grow its estate to "significantly more than 3,000 shops" over the long term.

It plans to accelerate its growth plans over the rest of the year and anticipates it will have had 150 net openings across the whole of 2023.

Chief executive Roisin Currie said Greggs' growth plans are "on track" and will target more locations where it feels the brand is under-represented.

"We have targeted travel locations and opened in airports like Glasgow, Cardiff and Gatwick," she said.

UK house prices take 4% tumble

UK house prices dropped at their fastest annual pace for 14 years in July, according to Nationwide.

The building society said prices dropped by 3.8%, which is the biggest decline since July 2009.

Nationwide said mortgage interest rates remain high, making affordability a challenge for house-buyers.

Mortgage costs hit the highest level for 15 years in July as lenders grappled with inflation and uncertainty over rates set by the Bank of England.

The average price of a home in the UK is £260,828, which is 4.5% below a peak in August last year.

But despite July's fall, higher mortgage rates mean housing affordability "remains stretched".

Robert Gardner, chief economist at Nationwide, said: "A buyer on average wage and looking to buy the typical first-time buyer property with a 20% deposit, would see monthly mortgage payments account for 43% of their take-home pay."

Food inflation still over 13%

NEW figures suggest food price inflation has slowed to its lowest level this year as prices of oils, fish, and breakfast cereals fall.

According to the British Retail Consortium (BRC) and NielsenIQ retail analysts, food inflation slowed to 13.4% in July. It was 14.6% in June.

But overall, shop prices are still 7.6% higher this July than a year ago.

BRC chief Helen Dickinson said the figures were "cause for optimism" but warned of supply issues ahead.

Russia's withdrawal from the Black Sea Grain Initiative as well as rice export restrictions from India, were "dark clouds on the horizon", she said.

"We expect global commodity prices to rise again and food prices will be slower to fall."

TEETOTAL RISHI PINCHES 1/3 OF YOUR PINT!

BOOZE BANDIT: Sunak takes a third of every pint

Figures show 33% of price goes in taxes

HE may be teetotal but Rishi Sunak and his grasping ministers take a THIRD of every pint you sup, figures show.

The average pint of lager in a pub now costs £4.47, a rise of 47p or 11.7 per cent in a year, according to the Office for National Statistics.

A pint of ale now costs £3.81 on average, an increase of 31p, or 8.8 per cent.

Figures from The British Beer and Pub Association (BBPA) show that more than a third (33.4 per cent) of the price of a pint is spent on taxes.

The BBPA says the average pint costs £4.10 in a 'wet-led' pub – one that mostly sells drink, not food.

Of that £4.10 pint served in a wet-led pub, VAT is 68p, alcohol duty 46p, business rates 9p and other taxes 14p, such as corporation and employment tax. That is a total of £1.37 going to the taxman.

Wages are the second-highest expense, making up

17.8 per cent of the price of a pint – or around 73p of the typical pint.

Only 7.5 per cent of the price of a pint is profit, and that has to be split between the brewer and the pub that sells it.

Pinch

Pubs and brewers are desperately trying to keep the cost of a pint as low as possible, the trade body added.

BBPA chief executive Emma McClarkin said: "While inflation is slowing, businesses and their customers are still very much feeling the pinch."

"While the price of other consumer goods has risen on average by 24 per cent since 2021 brewers have worked hard to keep cost increases at a minimum, with average cost of beer increasing by less than half of that, at 11 per cent.

"UK pubs and brewers are passionate about serving their communities and they will continue to try and mitigate the impact of costs to customers."

"But we really need the Government to step up and act on inflation and guarantee there will be no further duty increases so a pint at the local can remain affordable for everyone."

EYE, EYE...BIG BRUV'S BACK

THE new Big Brother logo has been revealed ahead of the show's return.

The reality series will be back on screens later this year following its revival by ITV five years after it was axed by Channel 5.

The new logo features the famous Big Brother eye, this time brightly coloured and covered in different emojis, including a broken heart, a hashtag, an exclamation mark, a question mark and a pair of lips.

It was previously announced that AJ Odudu and Will Best will serve as hosts of the reboot, which will air on ITV2 and ITVX.

They will follow in the footsteps of Davina McCall, Emma Willis and Brian Dowling. The show sees housemates live together in a custom-built home for weeks without access to the outside world in a bid to win a cash prize. It started in 2000 on Channel 4, and Channel 5 took over in 2011.

However, it was axed by the broadcaster in 2018 amid a ratings slump.

Footage from the all-new house will be live-streamed into the small hours every night on ITVX.

The Tory-hating social media personality showed off her incredible flexibility in a new Instagram video.

Carol, 62, turned her kitchen into an at home gym as she demonstrated how she stretches her legs.

Balancing on the work top and the oven handle, she swung her leg back and forth, kicking her foot high into the air – at one point it looked like her foot was over the height of her head.

During the impromptu workout, Carol said: 'I do this all the time. I love a good stretch!'

By GRACE HOOPER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Captioning the clip, she wrote: 'I love doing this in the kitchen....like a really cheap version of parallel bars... Lols.' When Carol shared the video online, however, it provoked some off-colour comments.

One slavered: "Excuse me while I go to the toilet with a handful of Kleenex" – the suggestion being that Carol's workout had been so sexually stimulating, he wanted to go and masturbate until spunky completion.

Another said he would like to "eat that 100%" – presumably a reference to oral sex rather than cannibalism.

Yet another leered: "Now do the same with no clothes on."

Last night a pal of the former Countdown star said: "How can Carol pursue her campaign of sniping against the Conservative Party when she is bombarded with sexism like this?"

Kids find missing millionaire body parts in suitcase

POLICE have launched a murder investigation after the dismembered remains of a missing spiv millionaire were found in a suitcase by a group of children playing by a stream.

The kids' parents told police in Buenos Aires, Argentina, who inspected the package and found the legs and forearm of "influencer" Fernando Pérez Algaba, 41 (above).

The body parts were cleanly amputated, suggesting the work of a professional.

An autopsy revealed the victim had been shot three times before the dismemberment.

Algaba, who had been reported missing since June, was identified by his fingerprints and some distinctive tattoos.

The "businessman" had accumulated millions renting luxury vehicles and selling cryptocurrency, which he advertised to his 900,000 followers on Instagram.

London panic as 'anaconda' seen in river

GIANT DEATH SNAKE SPOTTED IN THAMES

By BEN LAMB news@sundaysport.co.uk

IS a 30ft death snake swimming in the River Thames?

Very likely...

A man has claimed to have spotted an 'anaconda' like creature lurking in the river in London.

Taking to Reddit, the social media user shared a snap of what appeared to be a reptilian creature peeking out of the murky water.

The post, which racked up over 11,000 likes, was captioned: "Saw a mad thing in the Thames just now."

The image appeared to show a snake's head peering up out of the water with a red eye on show.

Many rushed to the comments section with their own theories of what the creature might be.

One person wrote: "It's the famous Thames Anaconda!" while another said, "It's one of them jellied eels, governor!"

Someone else quipped: "Looks like a bottle cap on a rock," while another added, "Just to add to this, I think it's

MONSTER: Strange sighting

the top of a wooden post with something red inserted into it at low tide."

However many more imaginative Reddit users dubbed the bizarre sighting The Loch Thames Monster.

What was described as "a massive snake skin" was found in the Thames last year. The five-foot-long skin found on the shore was thought to have been left by a Boa constrictor.

The skin was found by Jason Sandy, a London-based mudlark – someone who scavenges in river mud for items of value. It's possible it was shed by an abandoned or escaped Boa – a renowned species of non-venomous snake native to South America, known for coiling around its prey and compressing it to death.

Euphoria star Angus Cloud dies aged 25

ACTOR Angus Cloud, who starred on HBO hit series Euphoria, has died aged 25.

Cloud (above), who played drug dealer Fezco "Fez" O'Neill on the teen drama, died on Monday at his family home in Oakland, California.

"It is with the heaviest heart that we had to say goodbye to an incredible human today," his family said in a statement.

Angus buried his dad in Ireland last week and was said to be in a "battle with mental health".

"The only comfort we have is knowing Angus is now reunited with his dad, who was his best friend," the statement continued.

"We hope that his passing can be a reminder to others that they are not alone and should not fight this on their own in silence."

The cause of death has not yet been given.

Two weeks ago, Cloud posted a photo of his father on Instagram and wrote: "Miss you."

Pub tosser put on nonces' list

A MAN who furiously masturbated in a crowded pub has been ordered to carry out 160 hours of unpaid work and placed on the Sex Offenders' Register for five years.

Gavin Scott, 38, of Bonchester Bridge in the Scottish Borders, previously admitted intentionally exposing his genitals to three females at the Drumlannig Bar in Hawick on April 15.

Jedburgh Sheriff Court heard the group, who were seated at a table close to the door, were "upset and distressed" by what they saw.

The pub was busy and there was not a lot of space which meant the females had to shuffle up towards a man not known to them to get a seat.

They noticed he was sitting there masturbating and "heavily intoxicated" when he turned to them and said: "This is for you."

One of the females took a photo of Scott before reporting the matter.

RANDY MISS SUCKED OFF TEEN AFTER FRENCH LESSON

Amanda Leigh Quinonez was arrested last year following an investigation into the relationship with an unnamed student.

Now a judge in Riverside County, California, has decided Quinonez, 31, must stand trial for lewd acts on a minor and other offences.

By BRAD CHADWICK news@sundaysport.co.uk

At the end of a preliminary hearing at the Riverside Hall of Justice, Riverside County Superior Court Judge Walter Kubelun found there was sufficient evidence to warrant a trial on the lewd acts charge, as well as three counts of oral copulation of a child, two counts of distributing explicit material to a minor and one of annoying a child under 18.

The judge set a post-preliminary hearing for September 25 and allowed Quinonez to remain free on bail.

According to sheriff's investigators, the defendant, a language teacher and water polo coach at Eleanor Roosevelt High School, allegedly began communicating with the victim in autumn 2020, leading to multiple encounters.

Quinonez allegedly sent the youth nude photos, leading to intimate meetings. One encounter – leading to an oral copulation charge – took place after a French lesson.

Sheriff's detectives were alerted to the alleged acts by unnamed witnesses.

OUT ON BAIL: Quinonez

Sufficient evidence was gathered to justify an arrest warrant, and Quinonez was taken into custody in April 2022.

She posted bail immediately.

Eleanor Roosevelt High Principal Greg Anderson publicly acknowledged there had been an alleged "inappropriate relationship".

In a letter sent to parents and guardians, he affirmed that the Corona-Norco Unified School District has "zero tolerance for any behaviour that endangers our students".

STAR, 54, LOOKS STUNNING IN LINGERIE

Jennifer Lopez put her killer figure on display while modelling lingerie.

The Hustlers star, who turned 54 last week, wowed in an aquamarine bra and panties from Intimissimi in a number of snaps shared on Instagram.

The sizzling lingerie pieces, which featured gold details, highlighted her washboard abs and toned legs.

And the Ain't Your Mama hitmaker completed the look with a blue silk bath robe and a pair of clear heels.

Jen captioned the saucy snaps: "Happy Monday, have a great week everyone!"

DID you know that tomorrow is Cycle To Work Day?

Of course you didn't – because cycling is a maniac's pursuit.

To go unprotected amid Britain's roaring traffic is the act of near-suicide, as the videos posted online by cycling extremist Jeremy Vine clearly show.

Topless

And if you manage to avoid being knocked down and killed, there's the daily road rage from your fellow road users to contend with.

Plus, you arrive at work, sweaty, panting and probably soaked to the bone.

But cycling CAN be fun – in a safe, car-free environment.

And if topless ladies are on the bikes, so much the better.

They know the best way to keep cool on two wheels – wear no clothes!

Voodoo grave robbers take woman's head

VOODOO loons stole a woman's head from her grave for their warped black magic rituals.

Sabrina Tavares de Almeida, 31 (above), was shot dead in August 2022 before her burial site was found desecrated in March this year.

An administrator at the cemetery, located in Rio de Janeiro State, contacted police who launched a probe that has now been made public.

"We found that the concrete cover had been broken," criminal expert Fábio Barbosa Teixeira said.

"The lid of the wooden coffin inside the tomb was broken and the corpse's head had been extracted."

Teixeira believes that the macabre grave robbery was unrelated to Almeida's murder and the perpetrator was a purveyor of black magic due to other evidence at the scene.

"In place of the corpse's head was an earthenware bowl containing burned materials inside," he added.

Warden sold porn to lags

A PRISON officer has been accused of smuggling in pornography for inmates.

The unnamed female, from Christchurch Men's Prison in New Zealand, took in images on USB sticks which were then printed, laminated and delivered to lusty lags in their weekly shopping.

The screw has since been suspended.

Each week, prisoners are able to spend money from their trust accounts on items like toiletries and junk food.

Other prisoners, mainly ageing sex offenders, make up the orders in a canteen distribution area at the prison.

It's thought the officer loaded porn from USB sticks onto computers in the distribution centre. The filth was then printed on A4 paper, laminated, rolled up and put into the shopping bags of the lags who'd deposited money into a bank account to pay for the illicit images.

NONCE KILLED PAL & LIVED WITH CORPSE FOR 2 MONTHS

CHARGED: George Bone

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A CONVICTED sex offender killed his flatmate and lived with her decomposing body in a closet for two months – fearing she would come back from the dead.

George Anthony Bone, 31, was arrested and charged with murder after the woman's family found her corpse inside the shared home in Las Vegas.

The victim, Beverly Ma, was Bone's longtime friend from high school who moved in with him last summer.

Strangled

Bone told cops he knew Ma had been dead "for a while" and that she had committed suicide. But an autopsy found she had been strangled.

The killing came to light thanks to the unusually-high air conditioning bill at Bone's home.

He had kept the place chilled to 15C to prevent flies swarming around the body in the Las Vegas heat.

Loony feared victim would rise from dead

Bone continued living in the house with Ma's decomposing body and is said to have taken advantage of his dead roommate's finances.

He is accused of ordering more than 170 items that were charged to Ma's Amazon account.

Bone said he feared Ma would come back from the dead, telling cops: "That was me being simultaneously superstitious and distraught... just watching too many horror movies and ghost stories growing up."

Bone is a registered sex offender in Nevada after accepting a no-contest plea back in 2013 to attempted lewdness. He was sentenced to two to eight years in prison.

Climber dies in apartment fall

A DAREDEVIL famous for climbing tall buildings has died after plunging from the 68th floor of a block of flats.

Remi Lucidi, 30, was climbing the Tregunter Tower complex in Hong Kong when he fell.

Lucidi – known online as Remi Enigma – was pronounced dead at the scene.

Officials said Lucidi arrived at the building and told a security guard he was visiting a friend on the 40th floor.

Security tried to apprehend him after the alleged friend confirmed he didn't know Lucidi but by then the climber had already got into a lift.

He was last seen alive when he tapped on the window of the complex's penthouse, prompting a maid to call the police.

HOLOCAUST SURVIVOR FRAUDSTER IS JAILED

A FRAUDSTER has been banged up for four years after scamming an 87-year-old Holocaust survivor out of his life savings.

Peaches Stergo, 36, was sentenced by Judge Edgardo Ramos, who called her "unspeakably cruel" and said she'd been motivated by greed when she spun a web of lies for four years to siphon the octogenarian's life savings.

In April, she admitted pilfering £1.8m from the elderly man in a scam that ultimately cost him his home.

"The victim was looking for companionship," Manhattan US Attorney Damian Williams said.

"She used the millions of dollars in fraud proceeds to live a life of luxury at the victim's expense," Williams added, "but she did not get away with it."

Stergo (left), of Champions Gate, Florida, met the elderly man on a dating site, and from 2017 until 2021 slowly drained him for all he was worth – buying Rolex watches, gold coins, an apartment, a boat and several cars.

As well as the jail term Stergo must also pay back every penny she stole.

I'M straight and have only had boyfriends, but lately, I've been lusting after some hot lesbian action!

"I love watching girl-on-girl porn...just seeing girls kissing, with their soft lips, is such a massive turn on.

"I love curvy women, especially brunettes with tattoos who look really filthy. I also find big boobs and a curvy bum really arousing.

"I've never been with a girl. I'm newly single and when I'm home alone, I've been having a glass of wine or two and when I'm a bit tipsy, I've started exchanging naughty messages with girls online. So I imagine some lady loving will happen soon!

"My fantasy would be to get in a shower with another woman and really lather up her body. There's nothing hornier than slippery, foamy breasts!

"Going down on a girl would feel so different. But I know that another woman knows what feels good and will have all the right moves. I think oral could be really mind blowing.

"I'd like to try our scissoring too (where women interlock their spread legs). It would be super hot rubbing against each other to stimulate our clitorises!

"I also would love to have a threesome...another woman and a man would be best of both worlds!"

Smiler had ear bitten off in fight

A BANDAGED woman smirked during her mugshot despite having her ear BITTEN OFF in a wild brawl at a house party.

Dixie Stiles, 18, and Macy Regan, 23, were both arrested over a fight that broke out over stolen vape pens in Callaway, Florida.

Cops were called over a brawl between several men at a party thrown by minors.

Both women were at the shindig.

Regan attempted to leave and was confronted by Stiles, who accused her of stealing vape pens.

Regan then allegedly pulled out a gun, but Stiles managed to knock the firearm away and a fight ensued.

During the brawl, Regan allegedly bit off the top of Stiles' ear.

Cops said the torn piece was unable to be re-attached.

Stiles appeared to smirk during a mugshot that featured a bandage wrapped around her head. Regan sported a black eye in her booking image.

Fact me!

THE Ancient Romans used to drop a piece of toast into their wine for good health - hence why we 'raise a toast'.

'Wrong man' drowned as he fled cops

A MAN drowned while fleeing cops - who were looking for someone else!

Officers were serving a warrant in Greer, South Carolina, when Chuck Gilbert Shelton, 38, suddenly ran from the house and jumped into nearby Lake Cunningham.

Shelton was "unknown" to the officers and "unrelated to the warrant," according to the sheriff's office - who said he leaped in the lake "for unknown reasons".

"Deputies say the man swam a short distance before going underwater and not resurfacing."

Deputies on scene jumped into the water to locate him, but were unsuccessful.

Shelton's body was retrieved by divers later that afternoon.

His cause of death was ruled an accidental freshwater drowning.

I SELL PORN STARS' PUBES!

CANNY:
Natasha Root has made a packet

MEET Natasha Root, an entrepreneur who is making a bundle by selling porn stars' soiled panties, used butt plugs and even PUBES!

The beauty, 35, from Malibu in California, worked in the fashion business but got fed up

By HARPER HAYES
news@sundaysport.co.uk

with the long hours making money for other people.

So she decided to start her own company but had no idea what to do.

Inspiration came in a DREAM that she sold a former porn star pals BREAST IMPLANTS online.

The result was Fans Utopia - a site where people could buy their favourite adult or porn star's used panties, socks, lingerie...and more.

Shoots

Natasha said: "I had no experience in the adult industry, so when I launched the business, I first turned to my porn-star friend for help."

"I asked her for a list of the most popular porn stars' names. Then I sent them messages on social media explaining more about the company and how they could make money from the used items they had lying around after video or photo shoots."

She added: "We list a few items for a person on their page, and once the items are live, we share the page link with the adult star."

"Sometimes buyers have special requests or want to purchase a specific item from a star."

"For example, one buyer wanted used breast implants from Mia Malkova, so we completed the request and sold them for $2,500."

"Certain items sell for more: panties that have been soiled with period blood, sweat, or urine, for example, can be sold for a much higher price than that of nonsoiled items."

"Our audience includes men who want to buy used lingerie, panties, or toys, as well as women who want to buy the lingerie because they want to wear it without having to buy it new for double the money."

"Some of our most popular items are used toys, panties, and gym clothes."

"I get all kinds of requests for items, including hair, used implants, and custom videos. In the past, we've sold bodily fluids in a vial and pubic hair."

YOU wouldn't know it to look at her slim frame, but Claire Richards is a massive chocolate monster.

And she likes nothing more than settling down to a good film with a giant bar of Galaxy.

The 32D babe, from Wembley in north London, laughed: "I know that they are forever warning you about tooth decay and the danger from Type 2 diabetes, but I can't help myself."

"And it's only once a week, after all."

But there's only one problem with her sweet treat.

She explained: "More than once at the weekend, friends have come round and said, 'Let's go for a carvery! They do smashing gravy at that new place!'"

"But I have to turn them down because I've ruined my appetite with all that chocolate."

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Let's charge dinghy

ANDREW: Paying the price for his freedom

chancers for THEIR board & lodgings

BACK in 2003, a man called Andrew Malkinson was convicted of raping a woman and sentenced to life with a minimum of seven years in prison.

The evidence against him was that he was picked out from an ID parade that he'd happily agreed to take part in – hopefully to help solve a crime.

But he was ID'd as the perpetrator, charged, sent to court – and then thrown in the slammer.

He was entirely innocent, but that didn't matter. The Establishment had got their man.

Refusing to confess to a crime he didn't commit, "they" wallowed another ten years onto his prison sentence.

Stoically, he took his time – dodging constant murder threats, knives and punches – studying.

He now has degrees in both maths and physics.

Now, years after he was finally released after 17 years at His Majesty's pleasure, he is out.

DNA evidence has proved it wasn't him.

Horrific

I have absolute sympathy and empathy for the lady this happened to.

But, equally, SEVENTEEN f**king years in a hellhole for something you didn't do is horrific.

It's widely reported that Matthew may be eligible for compensation for his wrongful arrest and his 17 years behind bars, fearing for his life each and every single day.

The maximum damages to be awarded to him will be £1 million pounds because there's some kind of weird legal cap on such things if you've wrongly served more than ten years behind bars.

So, as it stands, Andrew has his good name back, but he lacks a job, a home, an outlook, and an internet stain that will forever plague his life. Just to rub it in, though, our hopeless woke Home Office is advising, through its ever mystical "sources", that if Andrew was to receive that compensation, it would be deducted for the "board and lodgings" at the prison he should never have been in the first place.

So, the wrongly convicted Andrew, who did not commit a crime, is somehow expected to pay for what he didn't do anyway.

Now, compare and contrast that with people who wash up on our shores in dinghies.

They don't, properly, get tried in courts mainly because nobody has a clue who they are.

Passports that got them through Europe miraculously disappear into the English Channel.

They get escorted to free hotels where they moan about the wifi.

Get put on barges with doctors and nurses and dentists that the rest of us struggle to find.

When will we charge these people the same way we charge students for going to university?

For their hotels, for Border Force, for the RNLI?

Because when you live here, sunshine, it ain't all sweetness and light.

It costs. Yes, absolutely, we should be kind. But ask Andrew about that.

I think you'll hear a different story.

Bro BUMS manatee to death

A MALE manatee was bugged to death by his own BROTHER!

The endangered marine mammal died after having too much of what wildlife bosses called "high-intensity" sex with his horny sibling.

Autopsy results revealed that 38-year-old Hugh died after succumbing to traumatic injuries caused by a sexual encounter with another, larger, male manatee – his brother, Buffett.

One of the fatal injuries was a 14.5-centimeter rip in Hugh's colon.

A faecal sample from Hugh confirmed the presence of fresh blood, but employees at Mote Marine in Florida allowed the brothers to continue engaging in "high-intensity interactions and penetration".

"The larger male was observed penetrating the smaller male again. When the larger male swam away, the smaller male was seen unresponsive at the bottom of the pool."

12-year-old boy on car nicking spree

A 12-YEAR-OLD boy has been charged with breaking into dozens of cars, of which he isn't even old enough to drive.

The Griffin, Georgia, police department said the unidentified boy was arrested and has been charged with 84 counts of entering an auto and an additional five counts of criminal trespass.

Officials say even more charges are pending against the youngster.

Several businesses along the North Expressway Corridor in Griffin reported a string of car thefts over the past month.

Camera footage helped detectives identify the suspect, police reports said.

Authorities have not identified the boy because of his age – and he would face juvenile detention if found guilty.

Dear Bexi,

MY boyfriend asked me to shag his best mate last week when we had a barbie.

It is not something I have ever thought of doing but for some reason I was up for it. I guess I was feeling horny in the sunshine.

We headed for the bedroom and my fella watched and wanked himself off as his mate shagged me doggy-style.

After he had shot his load over me, I sucked my fella back to hardness and he gave me a really good seeing to while I sucked off his mate.

We were exhausted when we finally fell asleep. But what's shocked me is that when I woke up in the morning, in bed between the two of them, I didn't feel as guilty as I should have done.

Why am I so mixed up?

PW, Berkshire

Bexi says...

I'D be more worried that your fella asked you to do it in the first place.

Dear Bexi,

MY hubby is ridiculously mad about cars and I swear he gets a bigger hard-on when he bangs me in a car than he does when he screws me in bed.

He is always taking me out in the car for a bonk on the back seat. That's okay, but I do like to romp in bed from time to time.

There are other things as well. He likes to pretend he's a racing driver when we shag and he uses my breasts as though they are the steering wheel.

Then, when he shoots his hot sticky jizz into me, he calls it his gearstick giving my tubes a lube-job.

What can I do to get him back interested in me alone again?

DC, Luton

Bexi says...

TELL him unless you get it in bed more often, you'll have him scrapped.

Garden paradise involves giving wife a good forking

Dear Bexi,

MY missus and I have made the garden our paradise, at least in the summer.

We are not overlooked by any of the neighbours – and it's a good job because when we have done all the weeding and potting out, we like to get our kit off and set about f**king.

The wife does a slow strip, peeling off her jeans and wellies and then her panties.

Then she tugs off my overalls (I wear nothing underneath).

I lay her over a raised bed and tongue her quim until she's pleading for my dibber – and I don't disappoint.

Having sex in the garden is amazing – there's just something very erotic and totally liberating about doing it in the great outdoors.

And now we are wondering whether to invite members of our gardening club to a barbecue-cum-orgy at ours.

Should we go for it?

My florist hunk's massive stalk-on

Dear Bexi,

I DECIDED to cheer myself up after dumping my boyfriend by buying myself a lovely bunch of flowers.

And I couldn't help but notice what a hunk the guy in the florist shop was.

I had a feeling he would have a stalk worth looking at and that it would really bloom if I could get my hands on it. He took quite a fancy to me, too, so I arranged to see him that very evening round at my flat. I had been right for, after a bit of chat, we got down to business. And when I undressed him, well, what a stalk he turned out to have.

Stiff

It certainly bloomed under my fingers – with a nice red head, thick stem and lovely balls.

I didn't put it in water of course, I dipped it in juice. It went deep into my pussy with no trouble at all.

He had already been down there with his tongue – making me so wet I could have kept all the flowers in his shop in bloom, at least that's what it felt like.

Then I climbed on top – I prefer it that way because as I slide up and down my boobs jiggle and bounce and I love that feeling.

He was using his hands on my breasts and pulling at my stiff, erect nipples as I rode on that huge stalk faster and faster.

He seemed to grow even bigger as he continued to do wonderful things to my boobs and bum.

Then he shot his load of passion seeds right up inside me and I thought I was going to explode with delight.

He flooded me with his stuff and when his hard-on began to subside I climbed off and licked and lapped at his wet and sticky stalk.

But after that I couldn't get him hard again no matter how I tried.

Where did I go wrong?

JR, Cheshire

Dear Bexi,

I WAS watching pop babe Rita Ora on the telly the other night and she left me absolutely gagging for it.

I don't know what it is about her, but she just gets me hard – the way she struts about on stage, showing off her gorgeous boobs and fit arse.

When the missus came home I quickly ripped off her clothes, licked her out spreadeagled on the floor and boned her on the stairs.

Do you know where I could find a Rita mask for the wife, as it would get me going all the time, I reckon?

VS, Birmingham

Bexi says...

LIKE his flowers, he closes up and goes to sleep at night. Next time get him in the morning – while he's still fresh.

Bexi says...

LOOK online. Happy hunting!

Hubby's workmates scored with me during Test match

Dear Bexi,

I'M on my own a lot because my hubby's a massive cricket fan who follows England all over the country.

During one of the Tests the doorbell rang and I was surprised to see two of my hubby's workmates with lager and bottles of wine.

They are young lads in their mid 20s – I'm 34 – and they asked if they could watch the Test with me. I agreed, so they poured me a glass of wine and I soon felt tipsy.

They were a bit drunk too, and when one of the batsmen got a century we all hugged each other.

As we did, I felt a bulge in one of the guy's trousers. Then he kissed me and confessed that he had always fancied me. His pal blurted out that he did too.

Then the first guy pulled out his nine-inch weapon. I was so impressed I eagerly took it in my mouth.

Thrust

His pal pulled down my jeans and panties. He gently licked me out and then entered me from behind. I was in heaven as he thrust into me and the other guy climaxed in my mouth.

Next they swapped places and I sucked on the second guy's cock, which was as impressive as his mate's.

But after they left I went back to the TV and the camera flashed on to my husband in the crowd and he was smiling and waving.

I felt terribly guilty and now I'm wondering if I should confess to him.

NP, east Yorkshire

Bexi says...

DON'T do it. You've been naughty, but confessing to your hubby about it will wreck your marriage.

Dear Bexi,

I'M a bit of a golf widow, as my hubby is always out on the course whenever he's got any free time.

Our sex life has been really suffering of late because he's either never here or just too tired to make love to me.

And now, to make matters worse, he's gone off on a stag do to watch some big professional tournament with his pals.

So the other night I went to a bar and picked up a young stud.

I took him back to my place and was soon sucking on his throbbing man-meat as he licked and probed my vagina with his tongue and fingers.

He then spread my legs wide and thrust inside my sopping wet love-hole as he teased my clitoris and gently fingered my arse.

I had my first orgasm within seconds and I'm not ashamed to say my love juices were literally gushing all over him.

We carried on making love for the rest of the night, but after he'd gone I couldn't help but feel a little guilty.

Should I tell my husband about this night of madness?

JL, Lincolnshire

Bexi says...

I WOULDN'T tell him about the fling, but perhaps you should mention the lack of sex in your relationship.

HOT Hannah Claydon has developed a fetish – for Kendal Mint Cake.

But instead of using it for energy to climb hills she uses it to boost her shagging sessions.

The 30F beauty, from Wakefield in West Yorks, reckons there's no better way of improving your stamina than having a break mid-shag for a bit.

Hannah said: "I love long, slow sex – I don't want any of that wham, bam stuff, thanks.

"I mean all afternoon, where he's in me more than he's out of me.

"But sometimes energy levels can flag and the best way to boost them is by eating Kendal Mint Cake.

"If I eat it when I'm not shagging I start to get turned on – maybe I've given myself a fetish!"

LANE WILLIAMS

TREE surgeon Martin Quinn chops down huge oaks for a living – but it's Lane Williams who gives him a serious case of wood.

Martin, 36, from Guildford, only has eyes for Lane and wanted a snap of the Luton babe's 34Cs.

He told us: "Lane is a real beauty and I've never seen a more perfect pair of knockers – she's a proper stunna if you ask me."

"If you could print a photo in the Midweek Sport of her boobs, it would be really appreciated by the lads at work!"

GAIL McKENNA

FOOTBALL coach David Hicks asked for a photo of Gail McKenna so he can give his players a pre-season pick-me-up.

David, 43, coaches a Sunday league team in west London and said a saucy shot of former model Gail, from Ealing, will give his team a boost.

He said: "I promised them I'd show them something local that was top quality – a pic of 32D Gail in the dressing room will be a good luck omen!"

KIRSTEN IMRIE

IT'S not hard to see why glamour legend Kirsten Imrie made it onto the readers' request page.

Peter Webster, from Newcastle upon Tyne, emailed in to ask us for a snap of the 36E Edinburgh stunna.

The Geordie glazier, 57, told us: "Kirsten is just out of this world."

"None of today's lasses I've seen out in the Toon look could hold a torch to her."

"Please can you stick a topless photo of her in the paper sometime soon."

ASHES RATINGS

ZAK CRAWLEY: His sensational 189 at Old Trafford was an Ashes classic and his stats told a story – 480 runs at 53.33 and a relentless strike-rate of 88.72. Stood up superbly to a strong attack and caught brilliantly at slip. 8/10

BEN DUCKETT: Missed out on a century by two runs at Lord's but 321 runs at 35.66 is a decent return. His busy approach at the crease helped set the tone. 6

OLLIE POPE: Promoted to vice-captain but will not remember this series fondly. Sent for surgery after hurting his right shoulder in the second Test. 3

JOE ROOT: Unbeaten century on the first day of the series and signed off nine runs short of another at The Oval. The heart of England's batting. Bagged six wickets with his off-spin. 8

HARRY BROOK: Banked four half-centuries but peaked with 85 in the final match and sold his wicket too cheaply at the start of the series. Learned quickly to see carry England's chase at Headingley and is inked in as a middle-order mainstay. 7

BEN STOKES: Almost conjured another miracle with his 155 at Lord's. Knee problems restricted him to just one spell but his single-minded, aggressive captaincy set the entire tone of the summer. 7

JONNY BAIRSTOW: Not the same wicketkeeper he used to be before his leg break. Cost England at crucial times early on but he managed to pull off a couple of diving catches. Played some handy lower-order knocks with 322 runs at 40.25. 6

MOEEN ALI: His return was a rollercoaster of blisters, groin strains, journeys up and down the order and a crucial three-wicket haul at the eleventh hour. 6

OLLIE ROBINSON: Took 10 wickets in three games but concerns over his fitness recurred at Headingley. 5

STUART BROAD: The perfect end for an England great. Stayed fit to play all five Tests and led the way with 22 wickets. Hit his last ball as a cricketer for six and took a match-winning wicket with his final delivery. 8

CHRIS WOAKES: The ultimate team man won Ashes player of the series. Revitalised the side with magnificent seam bowling that delivered 19 wickets at 18.14. Vital knock at Headingley. 9

MARK WOOD: A late but unforgettable addition. Not quite fit enough until the third Test, he brought searing pace to the home attack and put the frighteners on the Aussie batting. 8

JIMMY ANDERSON: Not the force he was but didn't give away many runs. Is it time for the great man to retire? 6

ALL THE FALLOUT FROM A BRILLIANT

BRILLIANT ASHES IN NUMBERS

Aussies pushed all the way but get to take the precious Urn back Down Under

THE Ashes ended in a 2-2 draw after England won the deciding match at The Oval.

Here, Midweek Sport looks at the key statistics from the series.

URN HEADS BACK DOWN UNDER

Australia have now held the urn for over five years, since winning the 2017-18 series 4-0.

They emulated that result back on home soil in 2020-21, after a 2-2 draw in England in 2019.

A repeat performance on this summer's trip north sees the prized trophy still in the possession of skipper Pat Cummins and his side despite England's celebrations at The Oval.

WEIGHT OF RUNS

Australia opener Usman Khawaja finished as the series' leading run-scorer with 496 but England had the other three to pass 400 - Zak Crawley with 480, Joe Root 412 and captain Ben Stokes 405.

By PAUL THOMAS

Crawley's average of 53.33 was the best of the series, with Root just behind at 51.50. Mitchell Marsh averaged an even 50 for Australia, just ahead of Khawaja's 49.60.

Ben Stokes averaged 45 for England and Harry Brook and Jonny Bairstow both over 40, with Ben Duckett at 35.66 as only the number three position caused problems.

Ollie Pope averaged 22.50 and Moeen Ali 31.00 in that spot. In nine innings, completed by one each for Brook and Stokes, England's number threes contributed 228 runs at 25.33, with a solitary half-century from Moeen.

Despite hitting 15 sixes, including nine in his 155 as he attempted to wrestle the Lord's Test England's way, the skipper's strike rate of 64.69 runs per 100 balls was actually England's slowest aside from tail-enders James Anderson, Stuart Broad and Ollie Robinson.

Crawley powered along at a strike rate of 88.72, with Brook, Bairstow, Duckett and Root all in the 70s.

In a smaller sample, the free-spirited Mark Wood blasted his 83 runs from just 64 deliveries for a rate of 129.68.

England scored 3,079 runs in the series to Australia's 3,059 and another measure of success with the bat was their lack of ducks for the batsmen.

Having collectively made 17 in their 4-0 defeat in the last Ashes Down Under, the only one this time around came from Chris Woakes in a score of 592 at Old Trafford. Mitchell Starc's dismissal without scoring on the final evening at the Oval was Australia's fifth of the series.

CHANGE FOR THE BETTER

Both sides made team changes during the series, either due to injury, form or tactics, and the men who came in made a significant impact.

Woakes and Wood were called up for the third Test and kept their places the rest of the way, finishing as the top two in the series bowling averages.

Woakes was named England's player of the series for his 19 wickets at 18.14, with Wood's pace picking up 14 at 20.21.

Stokes said: "The way Woakesy's come in and operated not just with the ball but with crucial runs batting at eight (has) been really good for us."

"Woody's put some unbelievable performances in over those first two games - yesterday and today he could

LIANT TEST MATCH SERIES

ALL SQUARE:
Skippers Stokes
and Cummins

hardly walk and he did an unbelievable job to still run in and bowl the way he did."

Australia's batting and bowling averages were also led by mid-series call-ups in Marsh and Todd Murphy.

The latter, summoned after fellow spinner Nathan Lyon's injury at Lords, claimed seven wickets across his two appearances at Headingley and The Oval to lead the Australian averages at 25.85 - even if Starc was their stand-out bowler with 23 at 27.08, edging Stuart Broad by one as the series' leading wicket-taker.

TRIBUTES TO BROADY

England great Sir Ian Botham led the tributes to Stuart Broad after the 37-year-old bowled out of Test cricket on a high at The Oval. Botham, like Broad, regarded as one of the sport's great allrounders, wrote on Twitter: "Stuart Broad...a magnificent career...a great man and a wonderful person...you did it - it was written in the stars."

Pakistan captain Babar Azam also paid a fulsome tribute to Broad, writing on social media: "Happy retirement, Broad!"

"You have truly honoured our game with sheer passion... 600+ test wickets is quite an achievement and cricket will always remember your services." Azeem Rafiq hailed Broad's career, insisting that "no words can do him justice".

Tributes for Broad came in from the world of football, with his beloved Forest saying: "Memorable moment, memorable career. Congratulations, Stuart Broad."

While new Real Madrid star Jude Bellingham added: "What a series, joy to watch!"

Six of the best Broad Test feats

ENGLAND bowler Stuart Broad has signed off from Test cricket in style, bringing the curtain down on an illustrious career.

Here are some of Broad's greatest displays.

8-15, V AUSTRALIA, TRENT BRIDGE 2015

Broad's finest hour, this was perhaps among the most memorable feats in Ashes history. Bowling unchanged from the pavilion end Broad routed Australia single-handedly in the space of 57 deliveries.

Broad finished with figures of 9.3-5-15-8, and Australia were blown away for 60 all out in 18.3 overs - en route to defeat by an innings and 78 runs in under three days, losing the Ashes in the process.

HAT-TRICK HERO, 2011 & 2014

Broad is the only Englishman with two Test hat-tricks. His first came against India, 12 years ago and again on his home ground in Nottingham. England were dominant all summer, on their way to number one in the world under Andrew Strauss, and Broad did his bit when he had MS Dhoni flashing an attempted drive to second slip and Harbhajan Singh lbw despite an inside-edge in India's pre-DRS days, before bowling Praveen Kumar. Broad repeated the dose three years later, this time against Sri Lanka at Headingley.

6-17, V SOUTH AFRICA, 2016

England had eked out a 10-run first-innings lead at the Wanderers, but South Africa's openers Dean Elgar and Stiaan van Zyl set a decent foundation second time round - until Broad seized the moment again. In under 10 overs, he had the first five wickets. England went on to win by seven wickets inside three days.

5-71 AND 6-50, V

AUSTRALIA, 2013

The Ashes were again in Broad's sights, and he once more made no mistake. His first innings wickets restricted Australia to a 32-run lead. In the second innings, the tourists appeared on track to halve the series deficit to 2-1 with one to play when they reached 168 for two in pursuit of 299. Broad had other ideas, finishing with six for 50 as Michael Clarke's men lost eight wickets for 56.

WICKET: With his final ball

6-31 AND 4-36, V WEST INDIES, 2020

A brilliant outing, which saw Broad seal player of the match, player of the series, take a 10-wicket haul and become just the seventh bowler in history to claim 500 Test scalps. After the match he made it clear the landmark was not a parting gift to English cricket and he has lived up to his word, going strong three years down the line.

5-37, V AUSTRALIA, 2009

A young Broad's calling card to the world game. With the Ashes on the line he elbowed aside more established names such as Andrew Flintoff and Steve Harmison to take matters into his hands. From 73 without loss, he ran a wrecking ball through the Australian batting order in a devastating session as they slipped to 160 all out. They never reclaimed the momentum and the urn came home.

HUKUM

All eyes on the Arc for Ascot hero Hukum

OWEN Burrows feels he has a lot to thank Hukum for as he prepares to send his King George VI And Queen Elizabeth Stakes champion straight to the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe.

The six-year-old has won 11 of his 17 career starts and it was somewhat fitting that having provided the Lambourn-based handler with both his first Royal Ascot and Group One winner, Hukum was front and centre once again as Burrows enjoyed his finest hour in the training ranks.

Having downed last year's Derby winner Desert Crown on his comeback from a career-threatening injury sustained when winning the 2022 Coronation Cup, Baa'eed's brother was at the peak of his powers in the hands of Jim Crowley in Ascot's midsummer showpiece to tee up a trip to Paris on the first Sunday in October.

As short as 6-1 for the Arc, Burrows is determined to enjoy Hukum while he can as he begins to dream of victory in Europe's richest middle-distance contest.

He said: "I owe him a lot. He's been around for a while, he was my first Royal Ascot winner and my first Group One winner."

"We travelled him to Dubai after the sad passing of Sheikh Hamdan and that was a big thing for him to win over there on Super Saturday as well."

"He's been a tremendous horse in my career and he'll be very hard to replace, but we'll enjoy him while we can."

He went on: "He's all well. He trotted up sound, so touch wood all good. "The Arc is something like eight weeks and that is the plan now. The plan has always been King George in the summer and then trying to get him to France in the beginning of October and now we can start dreaming."

All of Hukum's victories have come on ground no quicker than good and having proven very effective with a little cut in the ground, there are plenty of positive signs ahead of Hukum's autumn visit to the French capital for a race often run in testing conditions.

Burrows added: "He would go on faster ground and it was pretty quick in the Sheema Classic when he was only beaten a length and three-quarters."

"But he's obviously had a hard enough race there yesterday and knowing we can get him cherry ripe following a layoff, I don't think we need to be giving him a prep run."

"I would love to get him to the Arc and I think we would be talking about soft ground. He handles most ground, but he handles soft ground very well and we can dream."

Hukum's victory came 25 minutes after another of Burrows' Farncombe Down string, Afila, landed the Group Two York Stakes to give the handler a fantastic cross-card Group-race double.

"It's been quite busy and I'm literally sitting down trying to work through all the messages, but it is going to take me a while," said Burrows.

"I'll admit I was a bit shellshocked, but now it is finally sinking in and what a day, what a great day."

"I've not been at it too long (training), but it was well documented this horse was injured at Epsom last year and to get him back to this level is a huge team effort from everyone."

PADDINGTON

Bear with class act Paddington

By MIKE FRANCIS

THE prolific Paddington is difficult to oppose as he bids to continue his flawless campaign in the Qatar Sussex Stakes at Goodwood.

The Siyouni colt has carried all before him in five starts so far this season, progressing from a handicap win at Leopardstown to becoming the standout colt of his generation.

He was brilliant in winning the Irish 2,000 Guineas and the St James's Palace Stakes and successfully stepped up to a mile and a quarter when seeing off Emily Upjohn in an Eclipse thriller.

Paddington now reverts to a mile in a bid to emulate the great Giant's Causeway, who won the St James's Palace and Eclipse before adding the Sussex to his CV.

Top-class older filly Inspiral is the clear threat, but trying to give 4lb to a horse of Paddington's class, particularly on rain-softened ground, is expected to prove beyond her.

Baheer is taken to provide trainer Richard Hannon with a third successive victory in the Molecomb Stakes. There was plenty of talk about the Mehmas colt prior to his debut at Newbury in May, but he was upstaged by 150-1 shot Zoulu Chief.

Baheer rewarded those who kept the faith at the same track four weeks ago though, dominating from the front and winning as he liked over the straight six furlongs.

The speed he showed that day suggested a drop back to five furlongs should not be an issue and he looks the value call against the exciting Kylian and Royal Ascot winner Big Evs.

Comeback

The nap vote goes to the William Haggas-trained Amleto in the opening Coral Handicap.

The three-year-old brother to dual Group One winner Sea Of Class looked clueless on his Kempton introduction in the autumn, but there was definite encouragement to be taken from his fourth-placed finish at the same track next time behind Mostabshir, who is now rated 107.

Having been gelded during the off-season, Amleto made a smart comeback at Chester in May, pulling right away in soft ground, and an opening mark of 89 looks very workable. The Group Three Whispering Angel Oak Tree Stakes looks a good opportunity for Jumbly to open her account for the year.

Formerly a high-class performer for Harry and Roger Charlton, the four-year-old changed hands in November for a cool 1.25 million guineas and moved to Ireland to join Joseph O'Brien.

She has performed creditably in defeat in two Group Twos so far this term and the combination of a slight ease in class and a return to easier conditions should do the trick.

Classy Boy can provide Karl Burke with yet another juvenile winner in the first division of the Best Flat Races Live On Racing TV British EBF Novice Stakes at Redcar.

The Spigot Lodge handler has been firing on all cylinders with his two-year-olds this year and this son of Calyx looked a winner in waiting when third on his Doncaster debut.

Burke may also be among the winners at Leicester, with Indication Spirit poised to complete her hat-trick in the Join Racing TV Today Nursery, while Sandown punters should put their faith in recent Wolver winner Battista in the Trustatrader

Apply Today Apprentice Handicap.

Nastasiya keeps running well in defeat and may finally get her head in front in the Auto Services Perth Ltd. Conditional Jockeys' Handicap Hurdle at Perth.

Louis has more to show for Dragons

WALES ACE READY TO TAKE GAME TO NEXT LEVEL BY TIME OF WORLD CUP

WALES young gun Louis Rees-Zammit insists he has only shown a fraction of his talent in his short career as he targets a World Cup debut.

The Gloucester winger has scored nine tries in 25 Test matches and earned Lions selection since making his debut as a teenager in 2020 but, still only 22, he wants to take his game on.

After a season in which he was hampered by injuries, Rees-Zammit is itching to get onto the pitch for Wales' World Cup warm-up fixtures – home and away against England before a Cardiff date with South Africa – and remind everyone what he is capable of.

"I've got a lot to give," he said. "I'm ready to showcase my skills on the field whenever I get the chance. I don't think you've seen the best of me. I've got a lot more to give."

Rees-Zammit made his name on the wing but has also been seen in a 15 shirt for Wales, and he wants to develop that side of his game.

"I want to be versatile," he said. "I want to add more strings to my bow and if that means playing 15 as well then I'm ready for it. I've trained at wing and full-back so wherever I get played I'll try my hardest."

RUGBY UNION

Rees-Zammit said the biggest thing he had to work on to play full-back was his defensive positioning, but he feels he has the attributes to excel in the backfield.

"In Test rugby there are a lot of kicks and you've got to be ready," he said. "You've got to be in the right position at the right time. That's a lot different to being on the wing but in attack you get more of a licence to go and look for the ball and get more touches."

"We do have a licence and freedom on the wing as well but stepping up as a first receiver from full-back I quite enjoy. I'd say I get my hands on the ball more at 15."

"I'd say my kicking game is pretty strong but obviously I do love running with the ball. Being a threat on the counter attack is also there."

So much has come so fast for Rees-Zammit to date, but his dream as a boy was always to play in a World Cup for Wales, and this autumn's tournament offers him a first opportunity.

He remembers watching the 2019 tournament with his team-mates at Hartpury College, never imagining he would be a Wales star himself a year later.

"Everything has come so quick and I've tried riding the wave in a sense," he said.

"I absolutely love it here. I love rugby and playing for Gloucester and Wales and obviously I got on the Lions tour as well which was unbelievable. This is the next step and I haven't been to the World Cup yet. That is a dream."

Brutal

The 33 players that make Warren Gatland's final selection for France will have had to work hard for their places as Wales continue a punishing summer of training camps, spending the last week in Turkey where temperatures have been hitting 40 degrees.

Rees-Zammit described the training camp as "brutal" and "probably the hardest thing I've ever done physically and mentally, but it is just what he needed to put his injuries behind him.

"My body feels as sharp as ever," he said. "I feel the best I've ever felt so I'm really looking forward to these games coming up and showing what I can do."

Meanwhile, Scotland fly-half Finn Russell has been encouraged by his blossoming on-field relationship with Blair Kinghorn following the surprise retirement of 100-cap full-back Stuart Hogg.

Hogg announced his immediate retirement three weeks ago after deciding his body could not handle his initial plan to keep going until after the World Cup.

Russell and Hogg had a close understanding honed by playing together for Glasgow but the new Bath signing feels there can be a partnership with Edinburgh star Kinghorn, who has been one of his rivals for the number 10 jersey.

"It's obviously, slightly different," said Russell on adapting without his former captain. "Hogg has so much experience at the top level so I was able to bounce questions off him and interact really well. We got on really well."

"It's different having Blair or Ollie Smith there, whoever is playing for us."

"But in training, if it's been me and Blair in the same team, as we all know Blair can play 10 really well, so we have interacted really easily and chopped and changed who is at 10 all the time. Sometimes if he is in the wide ruck he might jump into 10 in the next phase which allows me to be a little bit wider."

"The way Blair has been training at full-back has been good. He is hitting the ball well, he is a big guy, he is really quick. He has different attributes to Hogg. "The way we have linked has been really good which is great to see because it is a new relationship between me and Blair at 10 or 15. Hogg has been there for the last 10 years."

Russell bowed out of a five-year spell in France with Racing 92 in June to sign for Bath but is relishing the prospect of a swift return for the World Cup.

Russell said: "The following they get for rugby in France, it's one of the best countries in the world for that, and for the World Cup it will be even more."

SHAW UP FOR FIGHT WITH CITY

United defender sick of watching the noisy neighbours win all the trophies

LUKE Shaw says Manchester United must up their game and end Man City's dominance after the pain of watching their rivals' treble triumph.

The 28-year-old left-back is now the longest-serving first-team player at Old Trafford following the summer exits of David De Gea and Phil Jones.

The pair were the last remaining members of United's title-winning 2012-13 squad, with City becoming the dominant force in England – never the mind the north-west – since Sir Alex Ferguson retired.

That success sticks in the craw of everyone at Old Trafford and Shaw says Erik ten Hag's improving side must kick on to halt their neighbours' supremacy.

Asked if City's treble win gives United a little bit extra motivation to kick on next season, Shaw said: "Yeah, 100 per cent. I don't think there should be any more motivation anyway with them winning that or not, but of course it hurt a lot. A lot.

By PAUL THOMAS

"I think all of us as players we felt that, especially for me seeing them come to the England camp. It was really hard to take, to be honest.

"Like I said, there has to be no more motivation than we have anyway, but we can't accept that. We can't let that happen again and I think we know that.

"I think it's our time now to start putting a stamp on things and not letting it always be so easy for them because, you know, in the past it's looked like that.

"Us as Manchester United players now we just can't accept that any more."

City have won five of the last six Premier League titles, with United unable to make a sustained challenge since winning their 20th crown a decade ago when Sir Alex Ferguson was still at the helm.

Furthermore, the Red Devils, who lost the FA Cup final to Pep Guardiola's men, have won just four major trophies in that period.

"Of course it's not enough," said Shaw, who joined from Southampton in 2014.

"I know that, we know that, the whole club knows that, I think.

"To be successful we need to be challenging for every trophy and winning competitions.

Strengthen

"We felt like we could have added another two competitions last season and I think we should have.

"But I think that, especially the start of this pre-season, we spoke about it a lot. I think this is a big season for us.

"We've already signed some very good players and hopefully there's more additions to come to strengthen the squad. Of course, we have to believe that we can win as many trophies as possible this season."

Shaw has been excited by Mason Mount and Andre Onana's arrivals, with the impending acquisition of Rasmus Hojlund filling another key role.

The left-back was not keen to talk about the 20-year-old Denmark striker as he has yet to complete his move from Atalanta, but the need for a frontman has been clear to the group.

"I don't really want to comment too much on that," Shaw said. "I think obviously he's not our player yet, so I won't say too much.

"But I think of course we've spoke, and I think the manager has and I think Bruno Fernandes did the other day, about how important it is for us to get a striker. We know that.

"Of course, we've got Anthony Martial, Marcus Rashford at the moment and Jadon Sancho, who can play there.

"But an out and out striker is what

THE TRANSFER WINDOW

DETERMINED:
Shaw wants to push City all the way this season

we need and we're desperate for one and I'm very sure that the club know that, the manager knows that and us players would love one to come, too."

Shaw is excited by United's prospects heading into Ten Hag's second campaign - a season he is confident will be "more successful" than the first.

The England international is "sure we can be at the top of the table challenging" if they upgrade their away form after a year of improvements under the Dutchman.

Demands

"I think the culture, of course, has changed," Shaw said.

"I think the attitude, the way we train, the intensity, the application that everyone brings in day in, day out.

"The manager demands that every single day.

"Even when you're at home he wants you to be at your best, to be honest.

"He wants you to be doing the right things, living the right way because football is our life.

"It's what we do day in, day out and we need to do everything we can to benefit, to get that maximum level and that's what he demands."

Shaw has embraced that mindset and become a cornerstone at a club where he gone from boy to man during the last nine years.

"I think definitely more grown up, more mature, definitely improved as a player," the United defender added.

"I feel like I'm still a bit young, so I've still got a bit more to give.

"But I think for it to be successful, like I said, I think we need to start, and I need to start, winning more trophies here.

"That's what we have to demand this season is trophies and, for me, that's all that matters right now."

BREN RULES OUT BIG DEAL

CELTIC manager Brendan Rodgers has told fans not to expect a £15million signing but he hopes to add more players to his squad in the next month.

Celtic have signed five since Rodgers returned – Norwegian midfielder Odin Thiago Holm, Australian winger Marco Tilio, South Korean pair Yang Hyun-jun and Kwon Hyeok-kyu, and Poland Under-21 defender Malik Nawrocki.

The new arrivals have an average age of 21 and Celtic look set to continue their model of signing younger players with potential to improve.

Rodgers said: "I think everyone looks and thinks that we might be bringing in a £15-20million player. The reality is that won't be the case. But that doesn't mean there's not players we want.

"There is still quite a way to go in the window so we will look to improve the squad again."

Kane Bayern deal 'almost done'

HARRY Kane looks to have kicked his final ball for Tottenham as Bayern Munich close in on a deal for the England skipper.

The German giants want the 30-year-old striker this week and have been in talks with Spurs.

Reports in Germany suggest Kane has agreed personal terms and an £80m bid has been lodged with the Londoners.

Bayern completed some important business of their own in selling striker Sadio Mane to Saudi side Al Nassr for £25m.

That has freed up finances for Kane's wages in a four-year deal to play for the Bundesliga giants. Insiders say Tottenham are holding out for £100m – although they risk losing him for nothing when his contract expires at the end of the new season.

Bayern are reluctant to smash the £100m barrier for a player who will have little resale value – but Kane wants the move and Spurs are likely to accept the offer on the table.
